

Lausanne Movement Special Seminar / Intergenerational Collaboration Roundtable in Japan

Dr. Asia J. Williamson, Catalyst for the Leadership Development of the Lausanne Movement, will visit Japan to lead a special seminar and a roundtable on intergenerational collaboration.

In the morning seminar, Dr. Williamson will speak on her areas of expertise: “Leadership” and “Intergenerational Collaboration.” The afternoon roundtable will be held with limited participants as described below. You are welcome to attend only the morning session (free of charge). This is a valuable opportunity, so we encourage all interested individuals to apply.

Date: July 2, 2026

Venue: Kansai Bible Institute (22-1 Monzen-cho, Ikoma City, Nara)

1) Special Seminar: 9:30 AM – 12:30 PM

- Topics: “Leadership” and “Intergenerational Collaboration” (about 80 minutes each)
- Open to all participants, especially pastors, church leaders, and seminary students
- Free admission (a freewill offering will be collected)
- Please register in advance to help us estimate attendance
- Lunch is available for ¥1,000 (12:30 PM – 1:30 PM); please indicate if you would like to reserve lunch when registering

2) Intergenerational Collaboration Roundtable: 1:30 PM – 4:30 PM

- A roundtable discussion focused on “How can we foster better intergenerational collaboration?” Designed for participants to learn from one another in an interactive setting.
- Free admission.
- Participation is limited to those already involved in the Lausanne Movement or those who wish to become actively involved, especially the next generation
- Highly recommended for participants of YLG4 to be held in Brazil next year

Registration: Please apply by June 24 by sending an email to: kbi-mark117@ares.eonet.ne.jp

Include the following information: 1) Name, 2) Church / Organization , 3) Age ,

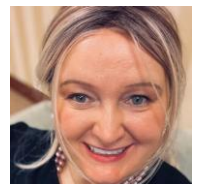

4) Lunch preference (Yes/No) , 5) Participation preference (Seminar / Roundtable)

※If you wish to join the roundtable, please describe your involvement with the Lausanne Movement.

If you are a next-generation participant hoping to become actively involved, please mention that in your email.

<Seminar Speaker: Dr. Asia J. Williamson>

Dr. Williamson serves as a Catalyst and co-lead of the Leadership Development Network, a member of the YLGen Executive Team, and leader of INTERACT within the Lausanne Movement. She is also co-founder of One Rock, a global leadership and mentoring ministry. Based in Singapore, she is Director of Waverley Abbey and lectures in Theology, Apologetics, and Leadership at Westminster Theological Centre (UK). She holds a doctorate from Asbury Seminary and is a graduate of Harvard Kennedy School.

Organized by: Lausanne Movement INTERACT, One Rock